What this presentation covers

Two topics, explained in simple steps

1

Attendance rules

How many classes you must attend, and what happens if you miss too many.

2

Absence & penalties

The 25% allowance, the FW grade, fines and special cases.

3

Marks division

Sessional work, mid term and final term weightage.

4

Grades & promotion

Grade table, GPA, probation and passing your degree.

PART ONE

Attendance Rules

Section 9 of the Semester Regulations

The 75% rule

The single most important attendance rule

75% of the classes held in a course must be attended

- Attendance is counted separately for every course, not for the whole semester.
- Without 75% attendance, you are not allowed to sit in the mid term and final term exams.
- If your attendance is short at mid term, you may be allowed to sit provisionally, but you must complete 75% before the final exam.

How much absence is allowed?

Maximum 25% absence - and not all at once

25%

Maximum absence

You may miss up to 25% of classes, but not in one long stretch.

FW

Forced Withdrawal

Use up the full allowance and your low-attendance course is marked FW.

0

Effect on GPA

FW is not counted in GPA or CGPA, but it appears on your transcript.

A course with an FW grade must be repeated with a junior session, and you pay the course fee and exam fee again.

Extra 5% relaxation - with a fine

Only the Head of Department can give it

Relaxation on request

The HoD may relax attendance by 5% if the student applies for it.

Rs. 2,000

fine per short-attendance course
(maximum Rs. 5,000 in one semester)

So what is the real limit?

- 25% allowed absence + 5% relaxation by HoD = 30% total
- This 30% includes both absents (without permission) and leave (with permission).

Special cases

The rules are slightly different for these students

Hajj or maternity

The full 25% absence may be taken in one stretch, with prior approval of the HoD.

National / international sportspersons

Attendance is counted after removing the classes held on the days spent in the games. The department arranges make-up lectures before exams.

Late admission

If admitted after 5 weeks but before the mid term, a special mid term exam is held. Admission after the mid term is moved to the next session.

Absent for two weeks in a row

Missing all classes of all courses for two weeks is very serious

Semester 1

Admission cancelled

You may apply for admission again next year, if you meet the conditions.

Semester 2 onwards

Semester freezed

You cannot continue the session and must repeat the same semester with your junior batch.

Also note: admission is cancelled if a student does not attend a single lecture during the first four weeks of the semester.

Attendance: numbers to remember

Keep these five figures in mind all semester

75%

minimum attendance in every course

25%

maximum absence allowed

5%

extra relaxation by the HoD

2,000

rupees fine per short course

5,000

rupees maximum fine per semester

Your monthly attendance record is displayed on the department notice board - check it regularly.

PART TWO

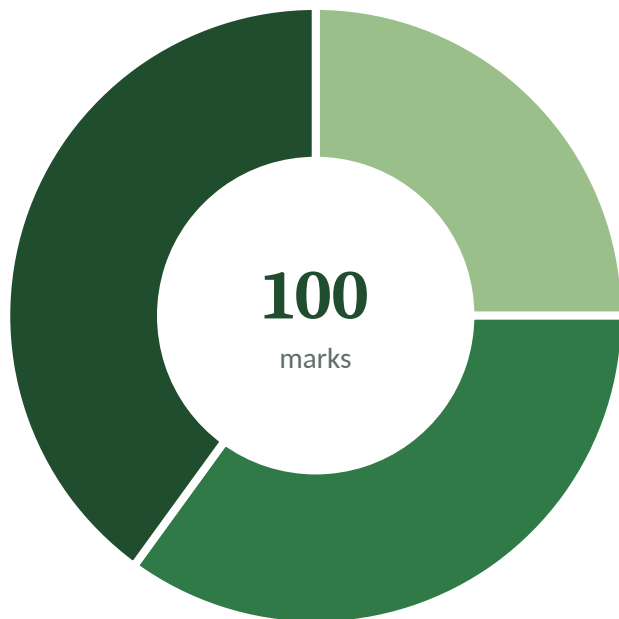

Evaluation & Exams

Sections 10 to 13 of the Semester Regulations

How your marks are divided

Every course is marked out of 100

25%

Sessional activities

Home assignments, quizzes and class work. At least one home assignment is required.

35%

Mid term examination

Held after eight weeks of the semester. Paper duration: one and a half hours.

40%

Final term examination

Held at the end of the 17th week. Paper duration: two hours.

Passing a course

What you need to clear a subject

50%

minimum marks
(grade 'D')

- The 50% is counted on the total of sessional work, mid term and final term together.
- You must appear in both exams. Missing one without a valid reason means zero marks in it.
- Below 50%, or absent, means grade 'F' - the course must be repeated.
- There is no choice in questions in the mid term and final term papers.

When are the exams held?

A semester is 18 weeks long

1

Weeks 1-16

Teaching

Sixteen weeks of lectures. The teacher gives the course outline within the first 7 days.

2

After week 8

Mid term exam

1.5 hours. Worth 35% of the course marks.

3

Week 18

Final term exam

2 hours, held at the end of the 17th week. Worth 40%.

The date sheet for both exams is notified by the Chairman, Director or Principal.

After the exam: your rights

You are allowed to see your paper and question your marks

1

Paper showing

Teachers must show you the scripts of your sessional work, mid term and final term. The scripts are collected back straight after showing.

2

Still not satisfied?

Apply in writing to the Chairman, Director or Principal within one week of the paper showing date.

3

Rechecking fee

Rs. 1,000 per course. The case goes to the Departmental Examination Committee, and its decision is final.

Results are also displayed on the department notice board.

If you miss an exam

A special examination may be arranged - but only on three conditions

1

Tell the department

Within one week of the start of the examination.

2

Get approval

The Head of Department must approve your application.

3

Pay the fee

Pay the special exam fee notified by the treasurer.

Important limits

- No valid reason, or fee not paid within two weeks, means zero marks in that exam.
- The special exam is not available to improve a D or F grade, or if you already sat the exam.

The grading table

Your percentage becomes a letter grade and a grade point

Marks (%)	Grade	Points	Marks (%)	Grade	Points
85 & above	A	4.00	61 - 64	C+	2.30
80 - 84	A-	3.70	58 - 60	C	2.00
75 - 79	B+	3.30	55 - 57	C-	1.70
70 - 74	B	3.00	50 - 54	D	1.00
65 - 69	B-	2.70	Below 50 / Absent	F	0.00

W

Withdrawal - not counted in GPA and not shown on the transcript.

FW

Forced Withdrawal - not counted in GPA, but shown on the transcript.

I

Incomplete - must be cleared by a special exam within one month, or 0 marks.

Promotion and probation

Your CGPA decides whether you move to the next semester

	Promoted	On probation	Dropped
1st semester	GPA above 2.00	1.50 to below 2.00	GPA below 1.50
2nd semester onwards	CGPA above 2.00	1.70 to below 2.00	CGPA below 1.70

2.00

The minimum CGPA needed for your degree.

2

Probation is allowed only twice in the whole programme.

Repeat

'F' courses must be repeated, and 'D' courses too if your CGPA is low. The better grade counts.

REMEMBER THIS

Five things to take away

- 1 Attend at least 75% of every course - attendance is checked subject by subject.
- 2 Too many absents means an FW grade and repeating the course with juniors.
- 3 Marks are 25% sessional, 35% mid term and 40% final term.
- 4 You need 50% (grade D) to pass a course, and 2.00 CGPA for your degree.
- 5 Check the notice board every month for your attendance and results.
